COACHES

T. Fred Holloway, the dean of the Cortland coaching staff, has been a member of the Physical Education Department since 1936. This year will be his 29th season as varsity soccer mentor. Last season "Prof" guided his team to an 8-2-1 season, capping their performance by being named as a representative in the NCAA tournament. The Red Dragons lost in the opening round to LIU, who proved to be the runner-up for the national title.

In keeping with his tradition of producing outstanding soccer players, having had 17 All Americans plus 3 repeaters during his tenure at Cortland, "Prof" had another All American in Dick Spina, who was selected as the number one left fullback in the nation. Fortunately for Cortland Dick will be back for another season.

Coach Holloway earned his bachelor and master degrees from Springfield College and his doctorate from New York University. He is also considered one of the top men in soccer in the nation and this is substantiated by the several committee assignments he has in the Intercollegiate Soccer Football Association, the National Soccer Association and the NCAA. He is the contributing editor for the New York section of the NCAA Soccer Guide and Chairman of the New York NCAA Selection Committee.

BILL STRAUB, assistant varsity soccer coach, is new on the staff at Cortland as he was named assistant dean in the Division of HPER in June of 1967. Bill is a graduate of Ithaca College with a BS in physical education, received his MS from Albany State and his PhD from Wisconsin University. Bill taught and coached at the Saugerties Public Schools and did some coaching at Wisconsin when working on his doctorate. He came to Cortland from the New York State Education Department. In his early athletic career Bill played professional baseball in the St. Louis Cardinal chain.

JOHN O'CONNOR is no stranger to Cortland. He received his BS in physical education from Cortland and returned to his alma mater in 1964 as an assistant dean. In 1966 he became a member of the physical education staff. In his tenure at Cortland John has assisted with freshman football, been head frosh lacrosse coach and was assistant varsity lacrosse coach last season. Last fall he assisted with the varsity soccer team and this year will assume the reins of the frosh team.

1967 OUTLOOK

The departure of 14 seniors, half of them starters last season, will make it difficult to make up for the loss of this depth of experience during the 1967 season. Two other starters are no longer in school and several members of the outstanding frosh team are missing. This will create further problems for the 1967 squad.

With 30 new candidates on the squad the outlook for this season is quite doubtful. Since the potential of these men is questionable at this point, predictions for the season is mostly guess work. On the bright side of the picture is the addition of two new goalies who performed well for frosh plus those returning lettermen who should form the nucleus of the team.

The return of Dick Spina, the All American fullback, should provide a lift to the team. Dick Alberti, Don Brooks, John Larsen, Bob Leahy, Ed Ozarosky, Paul Reinhardt, Bill Stewart, Orest Wasyliv and Lew Wendover all lettered last season and should form the nucleus of the starting squad. Era Mugisa, from Uganda, Africa, who had injury problems early last season, should add much to the attack.

With so many new faces and the loss of the large number of experienced players, "Prof" Holloway feels this should be a rebuilding year for Cortland. It could prove to be a surprising year for many of their opponents, however, if the team jells early.

THE YEAR OF THE DRAGON

"Red Dragons" is the nickname carried by the varsity and freshman athletic teams fielded by the College at Cortland. During 1967-68, the College will be observing its 100th anniversary and a large scale centennial program has been planned to celebrate this historic milestone.

The College's intercollegiate teams will join in the celebration with special events scheduled during the different sports seasons. Indications are that this will really be "The Year of the Dragon" for athletics at Cortland.

In football, Oldtimers Day will be October 14 and Homecoming will be October 28. The final home game, November 4, will be Dad's Day. Basketball season will feature an Oldtimers Night when Ithaca comes to Cortland February 10. A basketball Dad's Night will be March 2 when Albany visits the campus.

Other athletic highlights during "The Year of the Dragon" will be an appearance October 12 of the Danish Gym Team and the State University Wrestling Tournament February 24.
